About Me

Having been part of the fashion and modelling industry for almost a decade it gives me great pleasure to share my work profile with you.

The journey has been amazing and everyday learning something new over the years makes me creative and more enduring to my work. The work has made me travel not just across the length and breadth of my city but across the country as well and it makes me a happy travelled man with core knowledge in my field.

Technical expert in my show arena make me different from my other counterparts in the industry and gives me a recognised position as one of the "Best in business " motivated me to come up with an agency named as 'Glam Shine Talent Management'. From mentoring the fresh talents with various reaching and scaling heights in fashion of respective scale I have come a long way as a fashion choreographer and show director, a model groomer and a mother agent working with the best names in business of fashion, glamour, lifestyle, international labels, designers and fashion houses. I have much more to offer to your event beyond excellence, professionalism and great success.

Looking forward to associate with your esteemed organization for a great success journey.

Whether it is display runway presentation or a catalogue presentation or any source of marketing presentation for fashionpreneur or any startup. We need someone who can present and design such things in a way, that would create a mark or steal the eyesight of thier potential audiences, so I am moving ahead with the mission to be a support system for aspiring models, to guide them in pursuing their career in fashion industry and providing them all the necessary support as well as create such support by providing skilled models design an unique event or an exhibition or doing a conceptual shoot, which will add value to the client' s product or demonstration.
